A BEAUTIFUL HEAD

Completely Preserved to the Greatest Age A ND who that is gray would not have it restored to former color; or bald, but would have the growth restored; or troubled with dandruff and itching, but would have it removed; or troubled with seroida, scald head, or other eruptions, but would be cured; or with sick head-ache, (neuralga,) but would be cured. It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. For Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this—see circular and the following:

FRIND Wood: It was a long time after I saw you at Biasefield before I got the bottle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Betroti, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done at that you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having wincased its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

Again, very respectfully and truly, yours.

SOLOMON MANN.

CARLTIN. (III..) June 28, 1852. I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently so.

CHARLES'S LONDON CORDIAL GIN.—THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.—This Gin, dictibled in London from sound barley, under the surveillance of the British excise laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian jumper berry, and sotto of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingleta, readering $\frac{1}{2}$, in the opinion of the most eminent menical men, the purest and safest stimulant or distretic drink in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other film, and devoid of that harsh, acrid tasts which renders the article known as Holland Gilo, or Schnapps, so origetionable.
Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatsan, Droyse, Gravel, Colic, cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organe, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., shalest the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

De Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces CHARLES'S LONDON CORDIAL GIN "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever feen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the southern and western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and sir.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers, and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'S, NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

Lady Alice is decidedly a work of genius. Indeed, we know of w fletions where this first and highest excellence is more apparent."
[Baston Post.] "This is an extraordinary book.
"This is an extraordinary book.
"In the author was nimated by a deeper emotion than that of the production of a clever and somewhat surprising nevel which should make a great sensation, we are perfectly satisfied.

A graceful fancy, and even a high ranginative power, are unsparingly exercised throughout." Douglass Jerndi's Weekly News.

"Talent of a bigh order teems on every page."

[London New Monthly Magazin. "Besides the admirable sketches of society, the story of 'Alban Atherton' has a great purpose." —London New Monthly.

"The young hady characters in 'Alban' are just such girls as we have all known and some of us perhaps have loved." —Whig Review.

"The Forest' is one of the finest pictures ever painted of an ent-deer life in the wild regions of this State; and we speak with a vivid memory of all that Cooper and Hofiman have done. It delineations of individual character are hardly less admirable."

[N. F. Courier and Enquirer.

"Woods, lakes, and water-falls, the forest clearing, and the mountain wilderness attract Mr. Huntington with the freshness and variety of a new inspiration."—N. Y. Literary. World. "The descriptive powers evinced in 'The Forest' are extraordinary." -N, Γ , Econoptist. ry."—N. J. Ecangetts.

"The fluest partions of the work are the descriptions of hunting at of the grand scenery of the North. Here the author's thought flor native channels, and the leastful pictures of the wild woods a lakes, and the myriad phases of nature in forest, stream, and moutain, are painted with masterly and poetic skill.

[Protestant Churchman.]

"The author's power of description is truly extraordinery; the penpaintings are as exquisite in their kind as the colored landscapes of the materir. You see that the man has drubk in art from his earliest life, and has the artist's double genue, appreciation, and reproduction. Whatever may be the subject, it is placed before us with a vivid, a hving beauty, equalled by no American writer we know."

[Donald MacLood in the N. F. Freeman's Journal.

"That Mr. Houtington has such a faculty and gife may be seen by any one who will read ten juges of 'The Forest." The sports the adventures of an Indian hunting ground, are just before the reader's mind with the sharp outlines, the humor, and the breath of real his. The incidents of the journey through the wilderness, the moral interest growing up like flowers out of the commonest material facts, are charmingly described."—London Athennum.

"We continue to ask that no reader, great or small, who takes up

"We centred to say that no reader, great or small, who takes to this book (The Pretty Plate") will by it down nationless. It tells the story of a story told to half a dozen children in a fire if tourier. The comments point in a few words the character of those who make ther with such graphic power that we sen the inteners before us. In the respect the book is quite remarkable. We have not not with one is which juvenile character was so discriminated and portrayed."

The coal mining and Oil Manufacturing Company.

The coal bank belonging to and from which this company was chartered December 30. Is57. The coal bank belonging to and from which this company will operate is situated in Callaway county, in the state of Miscorn lying about four miles from the Miscouri river, on the opposite bank from Jeffarson city, and one hundred and it scaty five miles from St. Louis by railroad. It is a gentle inclined plane from the river to be coal bank, no valeys or hills inter-rening, giving the company every advantage possible over any other bank that is yet known in the Cotted States. So far as relates to navigation, the case with which lie coal can be delivered to the Miscouri river, the great demand for the coal on the steamboats, the central position of the bank for supplying the northern, western, and northwestern countries, together with the coal can be delivered to the Missouri river, the great demand for the coal by the steamboats, the central position of the bank for supplying the northern, western, and northwestern countries, together with the of great demand for coal in St. Louis, and all the river cities between there and New Orlean, inclusive, no company can coinpiet with use there and New Orlean, inclusive, no company can coinpiet with use hanks it said to be inferior to more in the known world for produced banks it said to be inferior to more in the known world for produced banks it said to be inferior to more in the known world for produced and sixty acres, tear, or the contained in it. Bot one great mass of the cannel coal depasted to a depth as yet unknown, to depth of about one hundred and sixty acres, tear, pure, and rich as the richest, it possesses all the requisites for generating gas, and, in fact, is now being used for that purpose an Jefferson city. In addition to the Missouri river for navigation, which is equited to any navigation waters in the world, we have railroade built, being built, and projected in almost every direction from helicross, etc. opening for the distribution of this coal the whole North, West, and northwestern country, where fault, from its carefult, has become uniming and delivering the coal on the bank of the Missouri river, to the amount of three millicum of bushels per year, for the use of stem boats, and to supply orders that will be made from all parts of the western country, together with one million of bushels from the mass facture of oil; making in all four millions of bushels.

For mining, one cent per bushel.

For mining one cent per bushel.

For incidental expenses.

Total expense. 300,000

The yield and profit are as follows: The cost will sell resulty on the river bank at fifteen cents per bushel, and the oil at one dollar ast twenty five cents per gallon: $450,000

The yield of 3,000,000 bushels coal at 15 cents. $450,000

The yield of the 1,000,000 bushels of coal in oil, at fifty per cent. less than its capacity, is 1,000,000 gallons, at $1.25.1,250,000

After deducting formler expenses 300,000

Leaves a net profit for dividend, per annum, of 1,400,000

The above estimate, it will be seen by those acquainted with the coal business, in based upon what can be and will be done at this bank. The stock is now over half sold, and it fast selling. Persent desirous of investing, where for safety, large and speedy dividends, none can equal, will do well to call on either of the following directors of the company:
